East Jordan Fetes Uncle Sam On 175th Birthday

Something Doing From Early Morning 'Til Late at Night

Plans for the all-day 4th of July celebration calls for a special morning ceremony on Main St. to take place at 8 a. m. At that time, the Legion band will make its first appearence of the day, as merchants and townspeople all over the city raise the American Flag in honor of the Nation's 175th birthday. Special fireworks salutes will be heard just before the flag raising ceremonies.

Following is the July 4th program:

8:00 a. m. Flag raising, Main St.
9:30 Street Games, Main St.
10:30 Coronation of "Miss Rainbow City", Main St.
11:00 Soapbox Derby, on Pray's Hill
1:00 Parade, from Fairgrounds through downtown section.
2:00 Motor Boat Races, Lake Charlevoix.
3:30 Ballgame, Grand Rapids Black Sox vs. E. J. Independents
8:30 Band Concert, Evening Waterfront Program, Memorial Park.
9:30 (Dark) Mock Naval Battle, Fireworks, Lake Charlevoix.
10:30 til ? Street Dancing, Main St.

In addition to the above program, 4th of July celebrators will find games and concessions on Main St., sponsored by local merchants and organizations. Space for concessions is still available and no charge is made to members of this and surrounding communities. Kieth Dressell, Chris Taylor and Cy Deziezel are in charge of concession space.

Community Vacation Church School

The Second Community Vacation Church in East Jordan will open Monday Morning, July 2, at 9:00 o'clock in the Presbyterian Church. Five of our local Churches are co-operating in this community project and all children between the ages of 3 and 12 or having finished the sixth grade, are urged to attend.

The school will operate for two weeks each morning from 9:00 to 12:00, excepting Wednesday, July 4th.

Competent teachers and helpers wil be in charge of each department. This year marks the 50th Anniversary of the Vacation Church School, and we want to make it a big one here in East Jordan. So send or bring your children!

Notice To All Veterans

This Fourth of July we will all meet to celebrate the 175th Anniversary of our Country's independence. We who have served our Country in maintaining our freedoms and liberties should help to bring to the Community spirit of Independence Day. Will all veterans meet in uniform at 12:30 p.m., July 4th on State St. at the Canning Co. and help to make this a goood parade. We would like to have anyone who is home on leave from the service appear in this parade also.

Marriages

Nachzel — Ewton

Miss Marjorie Mae Nachazel, 401 Pauline Blvd., Ann Arbor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Zitka, East Jordan, became the bride of Guy Ewton, Jr.,. of Shawnee, Oklahoma, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Ewton, Sr., of Shawnee, Okla., on Saturday morning, June 16th, at St. Mary's Student Chapel, Ann Arbor.

The double ring ceremony was read by Father Bradley of St. Mary's Catholic Church.

A gown of white satin fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, long tight fitting sleeves and long train was worn by the bride, she wore a finger tip veil of illusion with a white net headpiece decorated with forgetmenots and carried a white orchid.

Mrs. Jack Purdun of Wichita Falls, Texas,was Matron of honor. Her gown was champagne satin with matching head piece of tulle; the gown was fashioned with a short fitted jacket buttoned to the waist. She carried corsage of red roses.

The bridesmaids were; Mrs. Norbert Nachazel, East Jordan; Mrs. Edward Nachazel 217½ Bucholz Court, Ann Arbor; and Miss Maxine Liddle, Junior Bridesmaid, Muskegon Heights. Their gowns were fashioned simular to the Matron of Honor. They were powder blue, Aqua and orchid respectively. They carried hand bouquets of red and yellow roses.

Connie Nachazel, niece of the bride, was flowergirl. She wore a powder blue taffeta gown and carried a basket of red roses.

Edward Nachazel, brother of the bride, served as the groom's best man and Norbert Nachazel, East Jordan, brother of the bride, was usher.

A reception was held at 217½ Butcholz Court, home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nachazel; assisting in serving were Mrs. William Hale, Ypsitanti; Mrs. Leonard Babel, East Jordan; and Mrs. Howard Tidale, Muskegon Heights.

For going away the bride wore a white tailored suit, with red calf shoes and bag. She wore an orchid corsage. The young couple left on a short trip to Northern Mich. after which they will be at home at 401 Pauline Bl'v'd, Ann Arbor.

The bride attended the East Jordan school and at present is employed by King-Sealy Corp. The groom is a graduate of Engineering from University of Oklahoma, a member of Phi Delta Hita, Social Fraternity, and National Honorary Fraternity, PiTau Sigora, Sigma Tau, Tau Omega, Tau Beta Phi. At present he is working on a Master Degree in Aeronautical engineering at the U. of M. at Ann Arbor.

Street Sports for the 4th

Miss Iva J. Healey Dies at South Bend, Ind., Burial at East Jordan.

Funeral services for Miss Iva J. Healey who passed away at Memorial Hospital in South Bend, Ind., Thursday, June 21, 1951, following a long illness, were held Sunday, June 24, at 2:30 p.m. at the Methodist Church in East Jordan, conducted by Rev. Robert Moore. Bearers were: Emmet and Phillip Green of Boyne City and nephews, William Jr. and Wade Healey. Interment at Sunset Hill.

Miss Healey was born Nov. 23, 1882, in East Jordan. Her parents being the late Wililam H. and Anna J. Healey, where she grew to womanhood and attended the East Jordan school.. Later went to Boyne City where she was employed in the office of the Elm Cooperage Co. for several years. For the past twenty-five years she has made her home with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Chas Webster, in South Bend, Ind.

She never married preferring to dedicate her life doing good for others.

Surviving is a sister, Mrs. Laura Webster, South Bend; and two brothers, Warren E., Long Beach, Calif; and Wililam M., East Jordan, many other relatives and a host of friends who will miss her greatly.

Relatives from away to attend the funeral were:— Mr. and Mrs. Chas Webster, South Bend, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. Vern (Blosson Hays) Fuller, Grosse Point Woods, Mich.; Mrs. Freda Hayes Lalonde, Little Rock, Ark.; Mrs. Monica Hayes, Benton Washington, D.C.; and Mr. W. Buell Webster and little son Jimmy, Grand Rapids.

Playground Material Needed by Community Chest Recreation Com.

The Community Chest Recreation Committee is asking for used playground material. Balls, tennis rackets (needed very much) croquet sets etc. can be used on our playgrounds. Phone Mrs. George Bectold 87F J or M, or the Herald Office if you have anything to spare. 26-2

Jassamine Rebekah Lodge

Jassamine Rebekah Lodge entertained their daughters at a 6:30 pot-luck birthday supper on June 20th. The 17 girls going to camp at Big Star Lake were honored guests.

Adeline Bowerman, camp chairman showed colored slides of pictures taken last year. Several girls sent from here were in the pictures.

Regular lodge called later. The bake sale was a great success. We earned enough to send two more girls to camp and to have over $12.00 to give the newly reactivated community service fund.

Early in July we plan on a Rebekah-Oddfellow picnic at the East Jordan Tourist park. Watch for date.

June 24th was Memorial Sunday for our order. Forty-three members attended the Methodist Church and heard a wonderful sermon. We next went to the cemetery and decorated the graves of our deceased members and any other sister or brothers buried here.

Watch for our float in the 4th of July parade. Accent on Youth is to be our motto.

Playground Activities

Children continue to show much enthusiam for the playground activities. A new croquet set has been added to our playground equipment which has developed more interest in the children. The shuffle board courts have been very active these past weeks. Other activities which are daily supervised by Mrs. Robert Strehl are softball, volleyball, kickball, croquet, group games and badminton. We are hoping to see some new boys and girls this week at our playground. Come and have a good time with the rest of your playmates. Everyone is always welcome.

Tennis

Tennis continues to display much interest among the boys and girls. Tennis instruction has been given Tuesdays and Thursdays under the supervision of Mrs. Strehl and Coach Saxton. Last week was the beginning of our first tennis tournaments. Those participating and winning first matches are as following: Margaret Murray, Sue Boswell, Larry Woodcock, Sandra Boswell, Deanne Derenzy, Mary Ellen Nachazel, Martha Galmore, Joan Nachazel, Betty Brennan and Jundy Dressel. All matches have not been played off at this date. Because of the over enthusiam of our young folks we are limited in tennis equipment. Anyone having teeis racket's, balls or other playground equipment and would like to share it with the children please contact Mrs. Strehl of Coach Damoth. Coach Damoth will resume the duties of Coach Saxton for the remainder of the recreation program.

Girl's Day Camp

Girls Day Camp which was schedule for June 27th at Whitings' Park has been changed because of conflicts of other programs. A later date wil be announced soon. Watch your recreation news for this important date.

Archery

Through cooperation of Mr. Edgar Bowerman, Archery instruction will be added to the Summer Recreation Program starting July 2nd.

Mr. Bowerman has offered to give the instruction twice a week on Monday and Thursday at 2:30 p.m. each day. He will be assisted by Max Damoth.

Instructions will be given on the Football field located on the West Side.

So if you have archery equipment or are just interested in learning, don't pass up this chance. Instructions will last from 2:30 until 3:00.

Soap Box Derby

Much interest has been shown of late in the coming Soap Box Derby to be held Wednesday, July 4th, at 11:00.

Site of the race has been chosen. Division street hill will be the scene of the race with starting point located where 2nd. Street enters Division and the finish line located approximately at the Thorsen residence.

The race will be run in heats with three cars to a heat. Winners of the heats will then race in heats of three until the first three winners are picked. The first one across the finish line will be the winner.

Prizes for the race are being shown in the window of the Sinclair Sales Agency. They are worth the effort. Lets make the race one of real competition, boys.

Camp Ocqueoc

Group number one returned from Camp Ocqueoc Saturday evening after enjoying six wonderful days of camp life at the former C.C.C. headquarters located there.

The cooperative camp is sponsored by the Community Chests of Boyne City, East Jordan, Pellston and Petoskey and is under the leadership of Robert Woodruff, Recreational Director, Petoskey. He is being aided by Art Gillespie and Pat Daugherty, Boyne City; Gayle Saxton and Max Damoth, East Jordan; Bernard Wilson, Pellston; and Stanley Garthe and Leonard Murray, Petoskey.

Boys from East Jordan who attended camp the first week were: Floyd Detlaff, student councelor; Dennis Wilson, Camp bugler; Ron Wilson, Jan Wilson, Jim Sherman, Robert Sherman, Bobby Bulow, Perry Bennett, Irving Clark, Lee Thomas, Bucky Cihak, Jim Galmore, Dick Johnson, Dick Clark, Keith Ogden, Richard Sloop, Robert Murray, Bruce Brintnall, Joe Leu, and John Elzinga.

A typical daily schedule of amp life followed by the boys or the week follows:

7:00 a.m. Revielle
7:20 a.m. Flag raising ceremony.
7:30 a.m. Breakfast
8:15 a.m. Clean up and inspecton of barracks.
9:00 a.m. Softball, Volleyball, Nature trips, fishing.
10:00 a.m. Swimming, Lake Huron.
12:00 Noon, Dinner.
1:00 p.m. Rest period.
2:00 p.m. Excursions, fishing trips, volleyball and softball tournaments.
4:00 p.m. Swimming
6:00 p.m. Supper
7:30 Group games.
8:00 p.m. Movies or campfire
9:00 p.m. Taps (lights out)

Mich credit for a successful week at camp must be given to the cook, Paul Heynig, Harbor Springs, a very efficient and wonderful cook and gentleman. His addition to the staff released the other leaders from kitchen duty so that many activities counld be going at the same time.

Some highlights of the camp were:

The pet deer who liked the ball games; the many deer seen drinking and feeding from the lake; he plentiful and good food; the rips to swim in Lake Huron; the fishing trips to the neighboring Ocqueoc river; the trip to the Quarry at Rogers City and visit to Hoeft State Park; the rivalry in the softball and volleyball tournaments.

All in all a wonderful time was had by all as attested by the very few cases of homesickness which usually is quite common.

Running after women never hurt anybody—it's catching them that does the damage.

Robert Atkinson Born at East Jordan Dies at Jackson

Mrs. Ida Kinsey receied word Monday that Robert Atkinson of Jackson had passed away Friday night June 22, in a Lansing hospital following a heart attack suffered earlier in the week.

Mr. Atkinson was born in East Jordan 56 years ago, son of the late Mrs. Martha Warden. He attended the East Jordan school and at the age of 17 moved with his mother and step father, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Warden, to Jackson where he has resided since about 1913. He was married to Miss Veryle Wilcox of Jackson who passed away March 9, 1951. Funeral services were held Monday from the C. K. Wetherby Funeral parlor. Interment at Woodland Jackson.

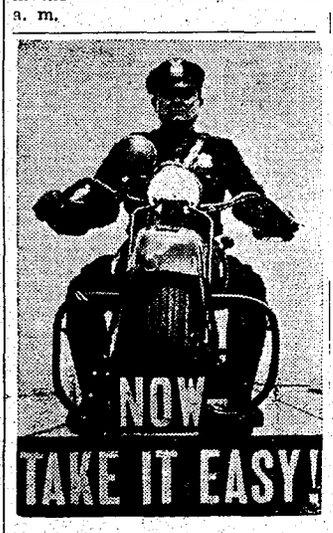

Surviving are three nephews and a foster daughter Mrs. Mary Richards.

Guest Preachers at The Methodist Church During July, 1951

Dr. Russell R. King, District Sup't. of the Grand Traverse area of The Methodist Church will be the special preacher July 1, 1951 at the regular 10 a. m. Worship. While here he will dedicate the new Altar and Dossal Hanging. The Altar was given by Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rogers in memory of their son.

The Rev. Leroy Hoover, Pastor of the Methodist Church at Mancelona, will be the guest preacher at the regular service July 8, 1951. He will also sing a special solo. Being a concert singer the congregation wil be double blessed for attending this service.

The public is urged to attend these and all other services held in the Methodist Church at 10 a. m.

Now - Take It Easy

"How fast is fast?"

This question, Chief Harry Simmons told the Charlevoix Co. Herald today, probably arouses more widely divergent opinion among drivers than any other traffic safety topic.

"When such a marked difference of opinion exists," Chief Harry Simmons said. "it is obvious why so many traffic accidents each year involve a speed violation."

A dangerous number of motorists, Chief Harry Simmons said, referring to National Safety Council studies, feel that "too fast" is some sort of definite speed limit about which the law of physics determine that a driver cannot be depended upon to have complete control of his car.

"Actually," Chief Harry Simmons said, " 'too fast' may be any speed from 10 miles an hour to 100 miles an hour. We can't just arbitrarily say that 80, 70, 60, or 50 miles an hour is 'too fast' and let it go at that. There are times and places, for instances, when 90 miles an hour may not be an excessive speed at all — a supervised race course, for example. Even more often than this, however, there are times and places when 20 miles an hour may be — literally — fatal!"

Chief Harry Simmon's interpretation of the problem was based on the theory that weather, road surfaces, mechanical factors and the driver's physical and mental condition are the real determining factors in the problem of what is a safe speed and what speed is dangerous.

"Posted speed limits", he said, "give only the top speed at which enforcement and engineering officials feel travel is safe under ideal weather, physical and mechanical conditions. Anything less than that calls for a proportionate reduction of speed."

Chief Harry Simmons discussion of speed coincided with the Michigan State Safety Commission's announcement of the June-July program of traffic safety education, which has as its slogan; "Now — Take It Easy!" The program is being sponsored in cooperation with the National Safety Council and coordinated in East Jordan by the Police Department.

Queen of the Rainbow City

Glenda Maxwell, 19, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Maxwell, was chosen to reign as "Miss Rainbow City" during the July 4th celebration and to represent East Jordan at the National Cherry Festival, during a special program at the Temple theatre the evening of June 21. She was selected by out of town judges.

Other candidates for the title of "Miss Rainbow City" were Elna Cutler, Marjorie Keller, Joanne Nachazel, Marcella and Jeanine Olstrom, Hilda Van Deventer, Marie Schliska, and Greta Derenzy. Four of the girls, Hilda Van Deventer, Jeanine Olstrom, Morjorie Keller and Greta Derenzy will serve in the Queens Count.

Mrs. Dorothy Pearl, coordinator of women's activities for the Michigan office of civilian defense will crown the queen during a coronation ceremony to take place on Main St. at 10:30 a.m. July 4th. The queen will wear a cape and crown of rainbow colors and she will receive several gifts presented her by the Dress and Gift Shoppe, Frank Strehl, Top-O-Michigan Rural Electric, Quality Food, Gidley's and Hites. The Queen has already been presented a piece of luggage by the merchants sponsoring the 4th of July celebration and roses were given her the night of the contest from Mayor Sommerville.

The Servicemen's Letter

Hi Fellas:

As anticipated, the address list is almost complete. I am only lacking one address, that of Miles Prevo, and I should receive that one soon. You men who receive this paper can be thanking your mothers, brothers, sisters, etc., for getting it. Hardly a day passes by that does not bring in one or more new addresses or change of addresses.

Here's hoping that this column isn't getting to be the same old thing to you fellows. The same old reporting of new addresses and change of addresses. In other words, am I giving you the kind of dope you want or would you rather that I tried to write on some other topic? Mr. Lisk and I had an agreement when I took over this job that it would be my job to report service happenings and the job of the rest of the paper to give you the local news. There's lots of news popping up about the celebration for the4th. this week and so on but that news is in the other part of this paper.

Heres some news for Pfc Ivan nemecek of the 1600 Supply Sqdn at Westover AFB, Mass. Did you know that Pfc William H. Antoine of the 1600th Air Inst Sqdn on your base is from East Jordan?

Finally I've found out where Little Creek, Virginia is. Here's an address for Clare A. Loomis, CP 327,76,50, ACB No. 2, Co B, Little Creek, Norfolf, Va. You know fellows, when I first received the addresses of Donald Braman who is in the A - RM School at Norfolk, and also the address of Robert Cummins who is at the US Naval Amphibious Base, I started looking at my map of Virginia trying to find where Little Creek was located. Norfolk was there plain enough, but no Little Creek. But here it is showing up as a small part of the same city. I wonder if you three fellows have made cantact yet. Clare is supposed to reach there on June 27th.

Basil Carney and Johnny Pawneshing have the same APO out of San Francisco but I guess that doesn't always mean a lot when there is such a large area that an APO has to cover. Carney's address is Cpl Basil P. Carney, ER 16 199 797, Hq Co, 2nd Bn, 35th Inf Regt, APO 25, c/o PM San Francisco, California. Cpl John has been with the 725th Ord M Co at the same APO but I see that his mail is being returned marked with the joyful news "Returning to the the US".

We now have the address of both our service women. Fern Morris, AC3 - 260 25 21, USN, is stationed in Wave Barracks 137, US Naval Air Station, Memphis 15, Tennessee. How are things down in Memphis, Fern? Is it there this summer?

Lt. Frances Lenoskey pulled a fast one and moved the same week that I reported her location in this column. She is now back with her favorite Air Force duty. He addres now is 87th Med Gp, Sta Hosp, Hamilton AFB, Calif. It seems that she has wanted in to the Air Force ever since she went back to the service and finally she has her wish. My request still goes, Frances, that if any of our boys come your way - take care of them - and then let me know of it .

You remember that in the June 1st paper I reported that Ronald Lundy's dad had sent him a radio all the way to Korea by Air Mail. Well, Ronald writes back that the radio got there ok but had one broken tube. That kind of put a hitch in things, too, away out there on the battle front where there are no stores handy. Well, Ronald, maybe they'll ship you home next month and you can pick one up back here.

I'm not sure how many of you fellows will know Ralph Hott. His is a comparatively new family around East Jordan. His folks live on Route 1 out south of town. But regardless of whether you know him personally or not, he is in there doing his job the same as you are; his address is most welcome in this column. Hiss address is now, Ralph E. Hott, FC 276 77 33, USS SB Roberts (DD823), Operating Division, c/o FPO, New York, N.Y. I would be glad to hear from you, Ralph, and learn what you are doing.

Here's another man in sunny California. Clifford Schultz, SA 420 80 14, R & M, US Naval Amphibious Base, Coronada, San Diego 55, California. They tell me it never rains in California. Just California fog. Is that true, Cliff?

Pvt. Robert Nemecek, US 55 126 281, TP & TT Opns Co, 185 Sig Corp Bn, R & M Co, 15th Corps, Camp Polk, La. is sure a long way from home. Away down in that hot south land during the summer time. His dad reports that Bob is studying in radio school - a six weeks course. He expects to complete his training around the 25th of July and then hops for a furlough home.

We've scratched four men from the mailing list for this week. These four men are home at present or are expected home very shortly. They are Everett Vermillion, Carroll Bartholomew, Norman Howard, and Howard Evans. When these men leave again for the service, will someone see that I get their new addresses? Here's hoping you have a pleasant visit while home.

Here's another hope — that the latest news of the war has some truth and that we will see many, many more of you home soon.

See you next week,
"Jake" Snyder

Pink and Blue Shower

A pink and blue shower in honor of Thora Kotowich was recently held at the Legion Home. Minnie Des Jardine, Edna Wilkins and Marriettia Walden were the hostesses. About 40 guests attended. The gift table was decorated with baby pink and blue chepe paper and centered with a beautiful bouquet of peonies and a huge stork hovering over the many beautiful gifts for the baby-to-be. Lunch was served buffet style, baked beans, potatoes salad cake and coffee. The table decorations crried out the baby pink and blue motif with the center piece being a lovely decorated cake. The guests played cards and an enjoyoble evening was spent by all.

Aux. Elect Delegates For Dept. Convention

The semi-social meeting of the American Legion Aux. Rebec-Sweet Post Unit 227 was held at the Legion Home Fri. June 22nd. The main order of business was the election of delegates to attend the Mich. Dept. Convention at Detroit Aug. 2-5, Lillian Bennett and Florance Stucker were elected with Mary Lou Breakey and Bernadine Brown as alternates. The delegates will take the Unit colors and flag to the convention to be presented there with the rest of the unit colors.

Several committee chairmen reported on activities of their respective committees. It was decided that the Aux. would have a food take out stand for the 4th of July celebration, Hilda Bathke chairman. It is still hoped the Aux. will be represented in the Parade. Lillian Bennett will have charge of serving refreshments of sandwiches and pop to all the members of the various bands who will march in the parade at the Legion Home, Peg Thomas and La Vera Ingalls to help her.

President Edna Wilkins wishes to again remind all members that there will be a Lower 11th District meeting at Walloon Lake Sunday July 2. The parade will be at 1 o'clock the meeting to follow directly after. All who can should attend this meeting.

The June Birthday party followed the meeting, members who were honored were Glenda Maxwell, LaVera Ingalls, Mariettia Walden, Annabelle Galmore and Marge Reed. The cake was baked by Marie Rebec and attractively decorated. Annabelle Galmore will furnish the next birthday cake. Sandwiches, pickles, coffee and tea was served by the Junior Activities Chairman, Marah Leigh Clark and co-chairman, Bernadine Brown assisted her. Everyone had lots of fun, if you haven't been attending these birthday parties be sure and attend the next one on the last meeting in July.

Next regular Aux. meeting will be Thursday, July 5, at 8 o'clock. The friendship baskets have not been turned in yet and any one who knows where they are please see that they are turned in right away.

Mr. and Mrs. Gabrel Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Shepard returned home Sunday from a ten-day vacation trip to Niagra Falls, Andriondack State Park, Lake Placid and to Ottawa, Canada also other places of interest.

The Cow That Can't "Run Dry"

Sandy Johnson showed me his Jersey cows last week. It was a warm day and they were all under the trees near a watering trough.

And darned if one cow wasn't pumping water into the trough! It's a fact—she'd raise the pump handle with her nose, and use her throat to push it down again.

"That's Mabel," Sandy explained as she moved away. "Sometimes they drink that trough dry, and she's learned how to fill it again. But she doesn't know her own strength—turns the place into a swamp if we don't watch her."

From where I sit, Mabel isn't the only one who sometimes doesn't know where to stop. For instance, people often carry personal opinions too far—like the person who wants everyone to accept his choice of political parties, or ball-players . . . or beverages. I prefer a glass of beer with my meals. I know that a lot of other people prefer milk. But nobody ought to insist on "herding" others around to his way of thinking.

THE WASHINGTON Merry-Go-Round

BY...DREW PEARSON

Peace Propaganda

SEN. BRIEN McMAHON of Connecticut bumped into Justice Felix Frankfurter, close friend of Secretary of State Acheson, at a cocktail party the other day and remarked:

"What's the matter with Dean? Why is he so cautious? Here the Russians are out promising the moon to the world, and we sit with our mouths shut like a bump on a log."

"I know it," replied Frankfurter. "It's the English in Dean. He won't promise more than he can give."

Frankfurter referred to the fact that Acheson's mother belonged to the well-known Canadian Gooderham family.

What Senator McMahon referred to was the fact that American propaganda abroad has not always shown imagination and initiative, and that we have not pounded home the very real fact that the American people want peace.

Regardless of Acheson's English forebears, however, part of this failure is probably more due to the fact that the state department has been so hounded by senatorial critics that it is punch-drunk and timid. If it makes any peace moves, for instance, it immediately gets tagged with the appeasement label.

Tests Popularity

General MacArthur's trip to Texas is much more than a visit to admiring friends. Actually, it is a carefully timed test of political popularity to see whether the general's backers should go any further in their latent plans to push him for the presidency.

One of the men behind the Texas trip is congressman Al "Doc" Miller of Nebraska, the same GOP leader who promoted MacArthur for president in 1948. It was partly on Congressman Miller's urging that MacArthur entered the Wisconsin and Nebraska primaries.

Both primaries proved a disappointment, and MacArthur felt that his Republican friends had let him down. Earlier, in Tokyo, the general had talked with optimistic visiting politicians who predicted that the American people would rise up almost unanimously to draft him. MacArthur had even told Lieut. Gen. Robert Eichelberger, then in Tokyo, that he expected to be summoned back to the United States during the GOP convention in 1948 and that he, Eichelberger, should be prepared to take over as commander of Japan.

However, MacArthur headquarters during the 1948 convention proved to be the emptiest place in Philadelphia, and MacArthur felt that the party had taken him up on the high mountain.

Since the visit to Chicago was disappointing, in that the general failed to fill Soldiers' Field; and since the trip to Murfreesboro, Tenn., also failed to fill the local stadium, the Texas visit will be extremely important. Texas has promised a tremendous ovation, and if it goes over big, his close political backers hope that MacArthur will let his campaign cap be tossed into the ring.

Eisenhower on Ethics

It has never been made public, but General Eisenhower has written "amen" to Senator Fulbright's plan for drawing up a moral code for government conduct. Ike sent the Arkansas senator a letter, warmly praising his "ethics in government" speech.

"It would be difficult for me to express the fullness of my agreement with your sentiments," wrote Eisenhower. "There are so many specific points in your talk to which I am moved to say 'amen' that the only thing I can say is that, as a citizen, I am truly grateful you made your talk. As to the suspicion that you may be called naive, I have so often had this adjective applied to myself and for such odd reasons, that I have come to look upon it as a very distinct compliment; at the very least, it would seem to imply the opposite of deliberate racketeering."

Eisenhower also called Fulbright's attention to a New York Times story:

"The rise in illegal border-crossings by Mexican 'wetbacks' to a current rate of more than 1,000,000 cases a year has been accompanied by a curious relaxation in ethical standards extending all the way from the farmer-exploiters of this contraband labor to the highest levels of the federal government."

Washington Pipeline

Senators have turned down a request from Vice President Barkley for a new Cadillac limousine. They decided he can get along on his old one . . . The Dutch government has made discreet inquiries to find out whether it's true that "Call Me Madame" Perle Mesta may be the next American ambassador to Holland. . . . The agriculture department has requested the national production authority to tone down its reduction of steel allocations for farm machinery.

LEGAL

RULES AND REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE USE AND OCCUPANCY OF STATE LANDS

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Commission of Conservation by the provisions of Act No. 17, Public Acts of 1921, as amended, the following rules and regulations are hereby made and adopted concerning the use and occupancy of all state lands administered by or under the control of the Department of Conservation.

It shall be unlawful:

1. To enter, use, or occupy state lands for any purpose when said lands are posted against such entry, use, or occupancy, as determined by the Director of Conservation.

2. To camp for more than 15 days without the written permission of an authorised represenative of the Department of Conservation.

3. To anchor or leave boats unattended overnight unless the owner's name and address, in legible letters, is affixed to the boat.

4. To store or leave boats or fish shanties for more than 15 days without the written permission of an authorized representative of the Department of Conservation.

5. To leave unburied refuse and rubbish, including tin cans, bottles, and fish offal, or to deposit same in streams or lakes. Garbage pits or other receptacles must be used where available.

6. To build a fire without proper provision to prevent spreading, or to leave said fire without extinguishing same.

7. To peel park from trees.

8. To remove, destroy, mutilate, or deface posters, notices, signs, or markers of the Department of Conservation, or of any other agency of government.

9. To post, place, or erect signs, to place or distribute advertising material, to erect a fence or barrier, to construct or occupy improvements, or to enclose state lands, without the written permission of an authorized representative of the Department of Conservation.

10. To use rakes, cradles, pickers, or other mechanical devices for the gathering of blueberries.

11. To use state lands for a commercial purpose without the written permission of an authorized representative of the Department of Conservation.

12. To graze state land without the permission of an authorized representative of the Department of Conservation.

These rules and regulations shall be in force and effect until May 1, 1961.

Penalty

Violation of any rule or failure to perform any act set forth in the rules is punishable by a fine of not more than $100 and costs of prosecution, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than 90 days, or by both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

Mr. and Mrs. James McCullom arrived Saturday from Baldwin and will make East Jordan their home.

There are many advantages, including economy, to cooking meat at low temperatures, regardless of the cooking method used. To the homemaker, the important figure isn't the cost per pound but the cost per serving. Low temperature cooking means less shrinkage and assures more servings per pound of meat. Tests show that shrinkage is reduced from 20 to 25 per cent.

Marie Kiefer

Meat is more tender when cooked at a low temperature. High temperature reduces tenderness by causing muscle fibers to shrink. At low temperatures, juices remain in the meat and fat melting slowly through the meat enhances its flavor.

The man of the house will enjoy carving roasts that have been cooked at low temperatures because they carve easily and fall into full slices. Roasts cooked at high temperatures are dry and will crumble when carved.

Meat cooked at low temperatures is uniformly done throughout — completely rare, medium or well done. It doesn't burn on the outside before cooking in the center.

Drippings are clearer and of higher quality at low temperatures. There also is less splattering of fat in pan and oven and this makes less work in cleaning.

Cattlemen Withhold Beef in Protest Of Government's Rollback Program

EMPTY MEAT CASES—Empty meat cases were beginning to show up across the nation as cattlemen continued to hold beef off the market in protest to the government's price rollback program of 8-to-10 cents a pound by October 1. The shortage was being felt only in larger cities, but the home town housewife can expect to feel the pinch if marketing does not increase within a short time.

President Truman and Price Stabilizer Michael V. DiSalle continued to stick by their rollback decisions. DiSalle told reporters retreat now might wreck the whole stabilization program. President Truman called it a "good program" and said he thought beef producers could be brought around.

Empty meat cases and full corrals described the meat situation in the nation last week.

While Truman and DiSalle were making these statements, Chicago and other cities reported nearly empty cattle pens. Packing firms continued to slaughter only a trickle of their normal quantity of cattle. Only 122,100 cattle were sent to market last week in the nation's 12 biggest livestock centers. In the corresponding week a year ago 167,700 were marketed.

At the moment it seems unlikely there will be a great increase in slaughtering until after June 30. Cattlemen are gambling that price controls will be lifted at the end of this month.

The present situation is somewhat similar to the 1946 beef battle when cattlemen withheld beef in their successful attempt to kill the government's price control program. It was argued at the time that if price controls were lifted there would be an increase in production and a decrease in price. There was an increase of production, but as today's prices testify there was no decrease in price.

FAR EAST SPECULATION—The unexpected and unannounced visit of George C. Marshall, secretary of defense, to Korea raised considerable amount of speculation in the home towns of the nation. Was his visit the first step toward a cease fire in Korea? Was some new military development about to be revealed?

Repeatedly, Marshall told reporters he did not expect any Chinese peace move soon and that his visit was strictly military. He remained silent after a series of guarded meetings with Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, U. N. supreme commander in the far east.

Of this much the home towner can be reasonably sure. Aging and not too well Marshall did not make the long and tiresome trip to Korea as a mailman's holiday, so to speak. If the home towner is speculating, the Kremlin and Pieping must be down right worried.

MACARTHUR INVESTIGATION—The Armed services and foreign relations committees' investigation of the dismissal of Gen. Douglas MacArthur moved on its weary way with two new witnesses. For eight days Secretary of State Dean Acheson testified. The committees then called Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer.

Acheson's testimony was remarkable in that during the eight days there was no show of temper on the part of the witness or the investigators. In the minds of many, Acheson's thorough coverage of all questions asked was an attempt to justify the administration and the first move toward his withdrawal as secretary of state.

Only on one point was his testimony different from that of other administration witnesses. He asserted that MacArthur approved the 1946 attempt to bring the Chinese Reds and Nationalists together for a "unified, democratic China." MacArthur immediately issued a statement that he was the victim of a "fantastic" lie.

The other witness, Gen. Wedemeyer, backed and even went beyond the Korean War proposals of Gen. MacArthur, but said President Truman had the right to fire his old commander. Briefly, Wedemeyer would withdraw American troops from Korea, break off relations with Russia, go into full mobilization, and "go to the real perpetrator of all this." These would be drastic moves and a definite risk of war.

WHEAT CROP MAKES COMEBACK—The agriculture department reported the nation's wheat crop is making a comeback from bad weather conditions and now promises the eighth successive harvest of more than a billion bushels. The June forecast is about 72 million bushels more than forecast a month ago.

The new forecast indicated a wheat crop of 1,054,000,000 bushels, about 25 million bushels more than last year's crop. Such a production would be only about 96 million bushels short of the government's production goal.

Unfavorable weather, particularly drought in the southwest great plains, and insects in the same area, coupled with cool, wet spring weather, had put the crop prospects under a cloud a month ago. Conditions improved greatly in May to bring the overall farm-production prospects up to normal by June 1.

THE SLOW ADVANCE—United Nations troops in Korea smashed the Communist "Iron Triangle" and continued their slow advance northward. The Reds have put up stiff resistance in the last two weeks and suffered an estimated 40,000 casualties in defense of the triangle.

The Communist were retreating slowly and orderly. There were indications in some areas of enemy buildup, possibly in preparation for renewed attacks. There was nothing in the over-all picture that indicated a clear cut victory for United Nation troops.

United Nations troops continued their slow, steady advance in Korea, inflicting thousands of casualties on Chinese Reds in the "Iron Triangle."

INFLATION BATTLE—June 30, expiration date of the present defense production act, is only a few days away and there are several indications that the administration is afraid new control laws won't be strong enough.

President Truman appeared worried and made three moves to get a strengthened law through congress. He issued a public warning that the nation may see "an unmanageable torrent of inflation" unless economic controls are extended, he called in congressional leaders for a get-the-controls-bill through conference, and he made a direct appeal to the people in a nationwide radio talk.

Economic Stabilizer Eric Johnston, on radio and television shows, has tried to arouse the people to the dangers of inflation. Neither President Truman or Johnson have been very successful in their efforts.

DAY OF DECISION

Local Boards Must Pass on Students

There is going to be a buzz of action around home town draft boards within a short time. Local boards will start to receive any time now results of recent college tests to determine which college students shall have their military service deferred. On the results of these tests local boards—3,853 of them—must make their decisions.

Board members must determine whether Joe College, who wants to complete his education before donning a uniform, shall be classified II-A (student deferment) or I-A (eligible for induction).

In making this determination, they may take into account his score on the aptitude test, his scholastic standing in his college class, and his locally-known capabilities and possible capacity for leadership.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

International Uniform Sunday School Lessons

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

SCRIPTURE: Genesis 1:26-27; Matthew 8:1-4; 12:9-13; 18:1-6, 12-14; I Peter 1:17-19.
DEVOTIONAL READING: Psalm 8.

You Are Important

Lesson for July 1, 1951

YOU are important! Whoever you are, wherever you live, whatever you do, you are important to others, to yourself and to God. You are the one and only "you" you will ever be; you have but one life to live, one destiny to fulfill, one soul to save.

Dr. Foreman

The Sunday schools of America are going to put in the rest of this summer studying Christian teachings about human relationships; and we begin, this week, by looking at a basic principle which underlies all of the Christian view of life and its relationships. No other teaching of the Bible will do you much good if you can't believe this simple truth; the incomparable importance of each individual person in the whole world.

In The Image of God

HOW does the Bible teach the importance of the individual?

First of all, by declaring that man was made in the image of God. In spite of man's sinfulness, even in the shabbiest and meanest of men there is still some trace of the image of God.

John Calvin, as is well known, was far from optimistic about the nature of man; but even Calvin wrote that the only good reason why we should love our enemies and do good to the undeserving, is that even in the worst of men there is still the image of God, so that what we do for any man we are really doing for the God whose image is in him.

Every man is in some sense a fresh creation. Widely used child's catechism asks the question: Who made you? And the answer is, God made me and all things. Every one has the right to give that answer to that question.

Bought With Blood

ANOTHER reason why we believe that every individual is important is summed up in what St. Peter said (I Peter 1): We have been redeemed—that is, ransomed, bought back—with what is more precious than jewels or gold, the "precious blood of Christ."

Does this mean only those who are now Christians? Surely not. You have a right to say to any man, anywhere: Christ died for you. If you cannot say that, then you are reduced to saying, Christ died for a limited number of people, and for anything I know to the contrary, you may be one of them.

That is a puny sort of gospel. If there is one thing which every evangelical church teaches with universal enthusiasm, it is that the gospel is offered freely to all. If there is one verse in the New Testament that sums up the gospel it is John 3:16: God so loved the world . . . that whosoever believeth . . .

That is no limited gospel. And no one who takes it seriously can look with scorn on any living soul. Jesus has warned us against scorning even a child. Isaac Watts once let a non-Christian idea get into one of his hymns—"for such a worm as I"! That is not a Scriptural idea. Christ did not die for worms, he died for men.

If So, Then What?

MOST Christians do not need even as much argument as this to make them believe in the worth of the individual; they are sufficiently convinced by the attitude of Jesus himself. Nobody could think seriously about Jesus' treatment of children, or his parables about the lost sheep and the lost son, without coming to the same conclusion.

The key-question always is: What is this action, this attitude, this plan, this arrangement, this institution, this system,—what is this doing to persons?

Persons are more important than anything else in the world. This by no means goes without saying. For the world of our time is riddled and raddled with other and contrary ideas: as for instance that man is only an animal, or that he is simply the highest of the animals, or that a man's value comes from his family, or his race, or his bank account.

Against all these mistaken views the Christian must stand, firmly knowing that he, no more than others but no less, is made in God's image and an object of God's love; and so in himself, small though his place may be, not only has a value that can never be described in dollars, but is worth more than the human race can ever own.

ANGLING ANGLES
by old Hi

With July at hand, anglers throughout the country set their interests in fishing black bass. As a group, the large and smallmouth bass and their relatives form America's favorite fresh water fish.

For the sport, action, and skill involved, many anglers prefer to catch bass by means of bait casting. Some of those fine bass lakes of Wisconsin, Minnesota, and Michigan have yielded prize winning small-mouths, and from North Carolina to Florida and Texas huge largemouths have been duped by darting plugs.

You take "The Ozark" tubular steel bait casting rod 5½-feet in length, attach a "Hibridge" level wind casting reel filled with 50 yards of 12 pound test Skirr braided nylon casting line, snap on a Schmoo plug bait, and cast it to the lily pad clusters or weedy set-backs. You have just the right outfit to tangle with the 10 and 12 pound largemouths, or 5 pound scrappy smallmouth bass.

In plugs, to cover every condition, you need both solid and jointed, top water and deep running; and these should be in red-and-white, green-and-yellow, scale finish, and shore minnow finishes.

These lures, together with double spinners, single spinner with pork strip, and ordinary nickel spoons, are reliable summer tempters when the bass are deep and both casting and trolling is to be done.

You may weight the plugs where the water is deep over a grassy bottom, and troll them at moderate speed in a hitchy sort of fashion. Often this plan brings good sized bass to net. Lake George, in New York, is one notable place where this system has worked successfully.

Other tips on taking bass by bait casting, and especially at night, are given in Old Hi's free booklet called "Fishing For The Millions", and a copy will be sent to you promptly if you'll drop a penny postcard request to me, in care of this newspaper. We'll have more to say about taking bass by other methods in a week or two.

Since bass, walleyes, pike, and pickerel are so fond of minnows, you should use one of the new double duty galvanized pails with 10 quart floating bucket. This features a new built-in bait can to carry worms, crabs, or frogs, which makes it extremely handy for extended trips or when several fellows go along in the along in the party. Here's an angle you should consider if you go after these game fish often, when a variety of bait counts.

Live bait boat fishing is very popular and effective along both the Atlantic and Pacific Coasts, and for this sport you want a good boat rod. Both the "Chesapeake" and the "Jamaica", 5½-feet in length overall, are fine tonkin bamboo boat rods. In tubular glass salt water boat rods, you would find the "Pompano" and "Admiral" to be ideal for general use.

By sending for your free copies of Old Hi's booklets "Salt Water Sports Fishing" and "Pacific Coastal Fishing", by addressing a postcard to me in care of this newspaper, you'll learn how best to use boat rods of this nature for taking all kinds of inshore game and food fish. Send for your copies today.

EXPECT 1,000 AT HOMEMAKES' CONFERENCE

Although last year's record-breaking atendance is not anticipated, home economists at Michigan State College are preparing to take care of more than 1,000 women at the annual Homemakers' Conference, July 10 to 13 at East Lansing.

The four-day program is designed to give insturction and entertainment to members of Michigan home economics extension groups throughout the state. Mrs. Leona D. MacLeod, state leader of home demonstrtion work, says an outstanding group of speakers has been obtained.

Dr. Alfred Haake, consultant in public relations for General Motors, Detroit; Miss Fannie Brooks, former specialists in health education at the University of Illinois; Mrs. Lloyd Sprague, New York, U. S. delegate to the Status of Women Committee of United Nations; Miss Rachel Martens, home furnishings editor of Farm Journal, Philadelphia, Penn.; Barton Reese Pogue, Indiana humorist and D. W. Varner, Michigan State College extension agricultural econmist are among the speakers.

Women will be housed in Shaw Hall. In addition to general sessions, women may select from among 18 fields for daily one hour classes and among five different interest groups for daily sectional meetings.

Home demonstration agents in Michigan counties are making reservations for attendance. Last year, 1,125 attended to establish a new record.

Possible decline of honey bee worries farm experts

The honey bee, with his precious cargo of pollen, may become too scarce on Michigan farms for the good of agriculture in general. Agricultural Experiment Station researchers at Michigan State College are reminding farmers that the honey bee, so necessary for the development of fruit and seeds, cannot survive without sufficient nectar and pollen resources. Approximately 50 cultivated crops require insect pollination and the job of pollinating fruit blooms is now almost entirely dependent upon honey bees. But Michigan's honey bee population is growing dangerously small. For advice on ways to help save the important honey bee, farmers should consult their County Agricultural Agent.

Compared to Premium-priced Gasolines

MORE MILES PER DOLLAR

Automotive Engineers know that the weight of a gallon of gasoline determines energy content... mileage. Official surveys show that the weight per gallon of high-test Blue Sunoco matches the average of all leading premium-priced gasolines. In short, high-test Blue Sunoco gives you equal energy, equal mileage at lower cost ...gives you more miles per dollar.

2¢ SAVING PER GALLON

High-test Blue Sunoco sells at regular gas price, which is usually 2 cents a gallon below premium-priced-gasolines. In spite of its low price, in many ways high-test Blue Sunoco gives you more value for your money... because of its outstanding balance of such qualities as anti-rust, quick-starting, anti-stalling, clean burning, long mileage and high-test action.

South Arm Farm Bureau

The South Arm Farm Bureau met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Gilkerson on June 19. Nine members and one visitor was present. One new membership was added to our roll call.

Some statistics on prices were given in regard to what part of a dollar a farmer receives for consumers goods.

The cotton in a mans shirt selling for $3.50 to $4.00 did not bring the farmed more than 30 cents.

A can of tomatoes retailing for 16 cents brought the farmer 3 cents.

A can of corn retailing for 19 cents brought less than 2 3/4 c to the farmer.

Onions selling for 5.7 cents a pound brought the farmer a little over one cent.

The wheat in a loof of bread that sells for 16 cents brings the farmer 2 3/4 cents.

A letter was read from Sen. Furguson in reply to one sent by the group in regard to the price and wage controls.

Thirty six (36) cards and telegrams were sent to our Senators and Representative in regard to the Price and Wage Controls.

Reports on a recent Women's Committee Meeting in regard to the Welfare and Social Aid of this county. Its felt we have an unusually large number receiving aid from Charlevoix county.

Action Committee reported on some of the recent bills passed by the Legislator. It was noted most of the bills opposed by the Farm Bureau were not passed.

No conclusion was found on the 15 mill tax limitation discussion.

The July meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. French.

Door prizes were won by Mrs. Coolman and Geo. Klooster.

Meeting adjurned with Pot luck lunch.

Home Economics Jottings

Recipe failures can often be traced to inaccurate measurements according to Michigan State College home economists. A teacup cannot be relied upon to give the standard cup used in recipes. A standard measuring spoon wil give much better results than common teaspoons or tablespoons.

Dishes that are cracked should not be used. Water and food seep inot the cracks and provide a breeding place for germs of all kinds.

To get variations in boiling temperatures in an electric range, leave the oven door partly open. This trick also keeps the heating unit on and prevents possible smoking.

Safest and easiest stairs for climbing are 10 inches wide with risers seven and one-half inches high. A hand rail or two will add to the safety of dangerous stairs, advises Olevia Meyer, extension specialist at Michigan State College.

Use softened butter spread to the very edge of the slices for sandwiches to keep the filling from soaking through, advise Michigan State College home economists. Both slices should be buttered—not too thick and not too thin.

Motorboat Complaint Season Is Here

Summer must be here—the motorboat complaint season is on.

The conservation department points out to those with legitimate complaints that he sheriff and sate policeman, as well as the conseration officer, are empowered to enforce the regulation against operating a motorboat so as to endanges life or property.

At the same time, the department's law enforcement division reminds fishermen and other lake users that motorboat operators have a right to use the lake as well—providing they do so in a reasonably safe manner.

The individual can file a complaint against a reckless operator with the local prosecuting attorney.

All outboard motors must have properly operating mactory stock mufflers except at properly supervised speed tails.

When buying readymade dresses, chose a fabric belt rather than an imitation leather one and be sure that buttonhole stiches are close enough for long wear.

FARM FACTS from your County Agricultural Agent

Ed. Rebman, Co. Agr'l Agent

DAIRY CATTLE NEED MINERALS ON PASTURE TO

The dairy cattle are now on pasture after the long barn feeding season in Charlevoix County. If you've done a good job of bringing them through you're certainly entitled to take a pat on on the back.

There's no doubt about it, good pasture is a valuable and economic source of high quality feed for dairy cattle. Cattle on pasture are lots easier to take care of than when they're in the barn in the winter.

Now comes the advice—don't let mineral feeding slip just because the cows are on pasture says Ed Rebman, county agricultural agent. There is no reason to believe that pasture plants contain any greater quantities of minerals than crops dried and stored from the same soil. George Ward of the Michigan State College dairy department reminds us that it is just as important to feed minerals to cattle on pasture as when they are on dry feed in the barn.

Most of you know the four minerals that are lacking in Michigan. In some places all four are not present in the farm grown feeds. They are salt, iodine, cobalt, and phosphorus. Salt is not present in natural feeds in large enough amounts for dairy cattle. Most plants grown on Michigan soils are short of iodine. In some areas the soil and crops are deficient in cobalt. Whenever little or no grain is fed, the possibility of a deficiency of phosphorus arises.

There are several products on the market which carry one or more of these minerals. There is plain salt, iodized salt, cobaltized salt, and trace mineral salt which contains both iodine and cobalt. To furnish phosporus if needed, you can use steamed bone meal or defluorinated phosphate.

If a phosphorus supplement is necessary it works well to mix one-third steamed bonemeal with 2/3 salt. This mixture will furnish salt and phosphorus as well as cobalt or iodine if trace mineral salt is used. Free acccess to this mixture will prevent any known mineral deficiency in Michigan cattle. Feed the mixture in a box or trough with a roof over it to protect from rain and put it where the cattle have access at all times.

MILDEW ON OATS:

Many oat fields in Charlevoix county are showing symptoms of mildew according to Ed Rebman, county agri'l agent. A number of oat plants scattered throughout the fields have their lower leaves turning brown. Several farmers have called in to ask questions why their oat fields were showing this discoloration, and what they could do about it.

D. L. Clanahan and the county agent visited several oat fields this past week and the trouble was diagnosed as mildew. Mr. Clanahan thinks that this will have little effect on the yield of grain and that this condition is due primarily to weather. He cautions farmers not to be too alarmed about the presence of mildew in their oats.

INTERPRETING THE NEWS

Politics in Michigan also is on vacation. Some stirrings are evident, but from all appearances the summer siesta is here.

Most activity stems from the G. O. P. state central committee where politicos are trying to create a more tightly knit organization—such as has been definitely lacking in the last two elections.

The new 18½-year-old draft has caused the greatest furor in the state the last few weeks. During assurances that "it will be months or even years" before any men under 19 are called,—eligible men are reluctant to enter colleges as employers are to hire them until the new law has been tested.

Reports in the college draft deferment tests show that some two-thirds were above the passing mark of 70. Seventy doesn't mean deferment for sure—this phase of selective service is as confused as any other.

Michigan's first draft call for doctors has been chopped from 67 to 41. The medics will get the nod July 26. The number was cut because "it was impossible to recruit 67".

Senator Moody already has drawn fire. Discussing the controls program in a Washington news letter, Republican Rep. Shafer said. "A publicity minded freshman attracted some attention recently by soliciting the advice of Bernard Baruch on the subject of inflation". Moody is not being ignored by the G. O. P.

Meanwhile Michigan Republicans have opened a campaign to present a united front against more federal consumer taxes. In telegrams sent to several congressmen Owen J. Cleary, chairman of the state central committee, suggested a solid bloc to oppose further taxes on income, gasoline, cigarets, autombiles and other items.

Not missing an opportunity to blast the governor, Cleary said: "While Gov. Williams, as a Decocrat, says he is opposed to consumer taxes, he hasn't raised his voice about the Democratic plans in Washington to grab millions of dollars more from Michigan people—the federal government is bleeding Michigan—."

Gov. Williams is still promoting the St. Lawrence Seaway project to open Atlantic shipping to the middlewest. He and other backers of the $18,000,000 project did their best to sell the project to Missouri valley representatives at a meeting 15 inland governors. Result? Nothing as yet.

While the C.I.O. is working to get a referendum on the recent 1½-cent gallon gasoline tax raise, the Good Roads Federation has been assured that opponents of the tax will be stymied in any efforts to invalidate or repeal the levy.

John J. Jacobi, general counsel of the Wayne county road commission, says the "gas tax increase is not subject to a referndum as the state constitution exempts appropriations for state institutions from a referendum."

Will there be inflation or deflation this summer? Economists say it depends on Russia and whether she cools down her war plans. But does it HAVE to be one or the other—There was a time.

A safety program has been started to reduce the number of small plant accidents. There are 22.5 accidents for every million man hours in small organizations while large plants have a casualty rate of only 8.95.

Is there too much industry in Detroit? A Washington house-senate committee has warned against too much concentration of defense industry in the Motor City. Threat to nationel security, the committee calls it.

A bill providing $3,000,000 for county and city TB hospitals has become law. The money will be distributed by the emergency appropriations commission ("Little Legislature").

Average price of farm real estate on March 1, 1951 in Michigan was nearly 2½ times that of March 1, 1941. As a whole land prices have hisen 14 per cent in the last year.

USE CARE IN SUMMER STORAGE OF RAYONS

Pack away your winter rayons with care if you want them to be in good wearing condition next fall, advises Lola Belle Green of the Michigan, State College of home economics.

Rayon garments require some extra care if they are to carry well through the summer storage period.

Be sure the garments are clean before storing, Miss Green advises. Spots are harder to remove if they have become "set". Perspiration, if left, may affect colors.

Rayon itself is immune to moths, but you will need to give garments made of rayon and wool moth protection.

Guard against silverfish damage by airing and brushing stored rayons frequently. If you find any of these tiny gray insects with long feelers in your closet, remove the garments and spray with a liquid insecticide. Follow this with a dusting of Pyrethrum powder.

Do not store your acehate rayons in or near paper. It has been found that paper tends to speed up the gas fading (color change) that occurs in many acetate rayons. Wrap acetate rayons in old sheets, hang them in cloth bags or store them in wooden or metal containers.

Since felt and wool also tend to increase gas fading, it is important to keep stored acetate rayons away from these materials, Miss Green advises.
